Little Boy Ate Onions and Died.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 7.—As a result of over indulgence in onions purchased from a huckster, Hiram Wilson, aged eight years, is dead, and Elmer Wilson and Paul Mosier, two other children, are lying at the point of death. During the day the children purchased several bunches of onions, and, procuring some salt, ate heartily. Almost immediately they were taken sick. The physicians think that poison of some kind must have become mixed with the vegetables.
